

Liva Music - Songwriter

Suzanne Ravgiala

Suzanne Ravgiala has lived in Nashville Tennessee for 10 years and has co-written with 70 or so people. She mainly writes lyrics and has written approx 150 songs in that time. She has had several holds with major artists. She has had 35 songs published in Nashville, LA, New York, and Philadelphia. She has had 8 small cuts. She has belonged to CMA, NARAS, TSAI, and the Songwriters Guild of America.

Before moving to Nashville from Maryland she had won prizes in about 30 song contests throughout the country.

Had her song Labor DAY played at the national meeting of the AFL:CIO convened to discuss the misuse of the Made In the USA label by sweatshops.

Wrote a song to be played at the 40th Anniversary of the James Dean Festival in Fairmont Indiana.

Had her songs "Somethin For Herself" and "Whiskey Christmas" added to the playlist at 12stepradio.com.

Had her song "One U-Haul Away" recorded by two artists recently. One played it at the Wildhorse in Nashville.

Just wrote 2 songs for a documentary and they were made into videos at...

<http://www.youtube.com/profile?user=kycady> go to www.hitquarters.com/suzanneravgiala to hear some of her songs.

www.livamusic.ch