

Rolf Schnyder

Rolf studied guitar at the Academy of Contemporary Music in Zürich from 1993 to 1998.

In 2002, he and his wife, lyricist Monika Schnyder, made the decision to become full time professional songwriters.

Though he writes primarily Country/Pop, Rolf is open to all styles of music, and his catalogue includes Jazz, Rock, Pop and Irish songs. Many of his songs have been included in film/TV placements. He has over 50 indie artist cuts and several major label artist cuts.

Rolf has placed near or at the top in multiple prominent songwriting competitions; most notably the 2006 Lennon Award in the country music category along with his co-writer Michael “Max” McGee and the Australian Songwriting Contest in 2014. Rolf is part of Needle & Salt, the newest country duo of Switzerland. www.needleandsalt.ch
